Course 20 Spelling

The skills of Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing are inculcated explicitly, the concepts of grammar, vocabulary and accent are imparted implicitly.

Course 21 Grammar

The linguistic concepts Implicitly Imparted include, but are not limited to:

- Chapter 1: 8 Main Times and Two versions:
Learn how to express in different times and in two versions in each time.
- Chapter 2: Two most widely used verbs in the English Language are Be and Have. Learn to play with them. Learn when to use has, have, had, doesn't have, don't have, didn't have, has had, have had, had had, would have had, is, am, are, was, were, has been, have been, had been, would have been.
- Chapter 3: Modals

In the English language, we speak about what's happening and what happened. But, we speak more about what hasn't happened. It's here the role of modals (not 'models') comes into play)
